MONDAY

Dead Sun Rising - Massive, overwhelming, searing onslaughts that'll leave you grinning and beaming, or slumped and drooling, or confused and rambling. It's your mind. Don't numb it with mediocrity. Also, sweet and slippery sounds to squeeze your heart. And spoken word and Stoner Rock! And occasional live noise performances. And lots of sugary butter to glaze your hot buns.

You Enjoy My Show - The First Phish Show to come to the University of Connecticut. Sit back and relax as your host DJ Dillon spins album cuts and lots of live versions of Phish songs from 2AM to 5AM every Monday. Hoping to establish this as a request show finally all you Phish heads will have a place to go while Phish is on its hiatus.

Beignets and Coffee - An extensive blend of Christian music ranging from indie-rock, rap, techno, hip-hop, latin, acoustic, contemporary and reggae. The styles of music will always be unpredictable from one song to another but the message will always be the same. If you find Church music boring, try some Beignets and Coffee.

Black Cesar - Hip-hop.

Richard Segan - Richard focuses on the freshest sounds available - No Corner of the World goes unnoticed. Feel the connection that exists throughout the universe on Monday's One World Radio. Roots Reggae at 11:30 and Sun Ra's Cosmic Corner Lands at Noon.

Rock Spectrum - Cracker Jack's "Rock Spectrum" focuses on guitar music from the earliest days of Rock n Roll until today. It will range from soft to heavy, depending on what type of mood I'm in, but I can promise one thing - it will rock.

Industry Standard - Industrial, Goth & all of their perverted cousins.

The Jazz Mission - Jazz Music Featuring Traditional Stylings, New Releases, Women in Jazz, and Special Features! Not afraid to play music that sounds good!

Beats Without Borders - For the first couple of hours my focus strays back and forth across the globe. I blend sounds from different regions to show the patterns of influence that affect everyone creating music in this "age of communication". At around Noontime all that seriousness takes a back seat to the afrobeat so to speak. Fela Kuti, James Brown and their many disciples kick backbeat-heavy and open politically minded tracks to keep your body bouncing and your mind questioning what the TV tells it. During the last half-hour, the music slows but the consciousness is turned to eleven with the roots reggae set.

Bluesline - The "Bluesline" with Host, Ramblin' Bert Rand. The latest in Blues/Blues Rock. Live In-Studio Artist When Available.
